Sharing Our Celebrations and Concerns, and Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Presentation of God's Tithe and Our Offerings

"A Simple Thanksgiving" arr. by Joseph M. Martin

"Tis a gift to be simple, tis a gift to be free, tis a gift to come down where we ought to be, and when we find ourselves in the place just right, we'll be in the valley of love and light. When true simplicity is gained, to bow and to bend we shan't be ashamed. To turn, turn will be our delight, 'til by turning, turning we come round right. This is my Father's world, and to my listening ears, all nature sings, and round me rings the music of the spheres. This is my Father's world, I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas; His hand the wonders wrought. This is my Father's world, the birds their carols raise; the morning light, the lily white, declare their maker's praise. This is my Father's world, He shines in all that's fair. In rustling grass, I hear Him pass, He speaks to me everywhere. In simple things, I hear him sing. He sings to me everywhere."

Prayer for the World

Oh God, we pray for the needs of the world: for peace, justice, unity. We lift our voices for the helpless, the cold, the hungry, the sick. Help us to love the unlovable, weep for the little children who have no helper, care about the aged who have little but dreams. Shake us from our complacency and make us care about all who suffer through no fault of their own.
