Some 2000 years ago, on a night, perhaps not much different than last night, a child was born. A child who has been called the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. More importantly, He is called my Savior and yours. Countless books and songs have been written about this child. One in particular was the song "Silent Night". I wonder though, was it really a silent night? Was Mary silent during labor? Were the animals in the stable silent too? What about the shepherds? Were they silent when the angels sang? I wonder. I wonder if for just a moment the world stood still. If at just the moment of His birth everything stopped. Silent? Probably not. The cows probably mooed, the sheep probably bleated, Mary probably screamed in pain, and the Angels sang. Let us not be silent either. During this Christmas season; if you see someone in need; give. If you see someone hurting, show compassion, and above all, love as our Savior loves us. And make sure that as you love, the ones you love know it.

Think about it.....
