Our Winter Retreat theme is "Putting God First". I would love to be able to say that God is first in my life 100% of the time, but if I did it would not be true. My guess is that is the case for all of us. The thing to know is that God does not really want to be a second place God. We want to be first in our lives or he will patiently wait until we decide to put Him in His rightful place. In order to do that, we all need to change. Our day should begin with "Good Morning Father" and end with "Amen". As we look forward to and beyond our retreat, I ask that we all lift each other up in prayer. We need to pray that God will reveal things to us that are in the way of our relationship with Him. If I pray for you and you pray for me; there is no doubt that God will listen and answer, and change will come. As we put God first, He will move among us in ways that we can only imagine, and will use us more and more to serve and be a blessing to others. So I ask you to begin to pray right now, and let's see together what God will do.

Think about it.....
