

SAINT PAUL LUTHERAN
Church and School

August 20, 2018

Dear Parents, Students and Community Members,

The purpose of this letter is to introduce myself, Jeff Plummer, as the new principal at St. Paul Lutheran School. I'm excited to take on this new challenge in addition to establishing a solid, positive relationship among all of those involved in the school's success. The school to home connection is one of the aspects of the position that is extremely important.

If my name sounds familiar, it may be due to my involvement in the Roseburg School District for 32+ years or as a volunteer in numerous roles in the community. I was born and raised in Roseburg. First and foremost, everyone one will tell you I love working with kids!

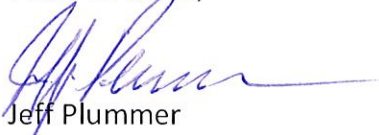

I have been asked by the school ministry team to fill this critical role part-time as your church continues to search for a new pastor. The arrangement fits both of our needs extremely well as those who know me know I really don't go at things part time, and it gives me a little flexibility in continuing volunteering afterschool in robotics at Jo Lane and providing lessons to brass players at Roseburg High School (I play trombone, trumpet and tuba in several local groups). Even though I keep myself busy, I can assure you this school gets first priority if ever a critical need exists.

A little more background on me; I'm currently an elder in charge of personnel at the Presbyterian Church, I'm also deeply involved in Lions Club on the state and local levels (currently running five college scholarship programs and region treasurer) and I'm facilitating a few opportunities for local students in the areas of math and science. Even though I retired from the school district a couple years ago, I'm not a very good retired person 😊

My wife, Melissa, travels around the United States as a math consultant, working with pre-K through fifth grade teachers to hone their instructional skills. We have four children and three grandchildren.

I look forward to working with you. If you have any questions, I encourage parents or community members to contact me by e-mail (jearlplumm@gmail.com until my jeffp@stpaulroseburg.org is set up) or on my cell (541-643-4001).

Yours in Christ,

Jeff Plummer
