

Sermon Text

Mark 5:21-34

²¹ When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. ²² Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet ²³ and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” ²⁴ So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. ²⁵ Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. ²⁶ She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. ²⁷ She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, ²⁸ for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.” ²⁹ Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. ³⁰ Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” ³¹ And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’” ³² He looked all around to see who had done it. ³³ But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. ³⁴ He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

MESSAGE

Robert Thiessen

COMMUNION

Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all.

Amen. Thanks be to God.

(Standing. The congregation gives the right hand of fellowship signifying oneness in Christ and the desire to be at peace with one another.)

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to this disciples, saying: Drink from this, all of you, this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sin. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.

(The congregation comes forward to partake of the bread and the cup while the choir sings "In Mercy Broken".)

Christ, the Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world.

Grant to us your peace. Amen.

Whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death,

Until he comes.

(The congregation gives the right hand of fellowship, signifying renewed dedication and unity of purpose in the service of Christ.)

"Come, Thou Fount of Ev'ry Blessing" MWB 782

*Come, thou Fount of Ev'ry blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace, streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount – I'm fixed upon it – mount of God's redeeming love.*

*Here I find my greatest treasure, hither by thy help I've come;
and I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger, wand'ring from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger, bought me with his precious blood.*

*O, to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter, bind my wand'ring heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love, here's my heart, O take and seal it; seal it for thy courts above.*

BENEDICTION

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make his face shine upon you and be gracious unto you.
The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.
In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

POSTLUDE “Blessed Be Your Name” Redman/Hayes

Note of Thanks

Dear Ardmore Family,

I want to thank you for all the cards and love offering that the congregation gave me upon my retirement. Also for the very nice luncheon and the songs that Michael sang were enjoyable.

I enjoyed serving with you all for the past 34 plus years. It was a pleasure, but I felt like it was time to have some time for myself to do what I wanted to do. You all will always have a special place in my heart. I will keep you in my prayers and will be back to see you all from time to time.

Joy,

Carol Obenchain

Help Needed for Children's Church

Currently we have four adults volunteering in the Kids Church Program. This summer especially we are in need of more adults. I am out of town almost every weekend, but normally I am happy to fill in the gaps. Just think, if we could get four more people, you would only have to teach Kids Church once every other month! I will have lessons and supplies laid out for you, so it is really very easy!

Email, call, or text me if you can help!

Welcome to Ardmore Moravian Church
“Where Communion and Community Come Together”

We are a Christ-centered fellowship of people bound by love of Jesus and one another. Our greatest hope is that God will be glorified through the power and presence of the Holy Spirit among us. We have gathered to worship; celebrating the eternal life won for us by Christ through His death and resurrection as promised in the Bible.

God has created and called us into relationship with Himself (communion) and with one another (community). We need the Lord, and we need each other. As you draw close to God, may you also grow in friendship with those around you. We believe God has gifted people in every age. So our worship is marked by a variety of styles and expressions of music, liturgy, prayer and proclamation. We seek to blend these expressions in a way that pleases God and edifies one another.

The Moravian Church, while unfamiliar to many, is actually one of the oldest Protestant denominations in the world. Our roots and heritage run deep, even one hundred years prior to the Great Reformation. Yet our sense of mission is alive and active today as we serve the Lord in ministry together.

Jesus said to His disciples, “...you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth.” At Ardmore Moravian we sincerely strive to live that promise. We worship, study the Holy Scriptures, fellowship and grow as disciples of Christ together here at the corner of Hawthorne and Academy. We ask the Lord then to send us out and employ us for His glory as we share the Gospel - the Good News of Christ - locally, regionally and globally.

If you are searching for a meaningful relationship with God and productive friendships with other people, you’ve come to the right place - “Where Communion and Community Come Together”.
