

Daily Scripture Reading

There are several “one another” scriptures that the Bible calls us to obey, so we may experience a fuller expression of Jesus’ love TOWARD us, IN us, and THROUGH us. When we are obedient to these texts, it shows our families, friends, and neighbors how deep and powerful God’s love is for each of us.

Each day for the duration of the this series (January 12th–March 15th):

1. Read the day’s “one another” passage in it’s context.
2. Pray for an understanding heart and how you can be obedient to that day’s text.
3. Each day put this passage into practice with your family, friends, and neighbors.
4. Share your story and a photo of what God is doing in your life on Social Media using this hashtag: #OneAnotherAlameda

Sunday “...love one another...” (John 13:34–35)

Monday “...from the beginning. I ask that we love one another.” (2 John 5)

Tuesday “...Make your love increase and overflow for each other.” (1 Thes. 3:12)

Wednesday “...love one another deeply, from the heart.” (1 Peter 1:22)

Thursday “...since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.” (1 John 4:11)

Friday “...love one another, for love comes from God.” (1 John 4:7)

Saturday “...love one another...” (John 15:12–17)

THIS WEEK’S #OneAnotherAlameda CHALLENGE

- Write a letter to tell someone what you love about them and what you see God doing in their life.
- Give your undivided attention when spending time with someone.
- Give someone a hug, a gift, or help them with a task “just because.”
- Send a text to tell someone that they’ve been on your mind.
- Join the Alameda Family Facebook group and connect with other members throughout the week.
