

Daily Scripture Reading

There are several “one another” scriptures that the Bible calls us to obey, so we may experience a fuller expression of Jesus’ love TOWARD us, IN us, and THROUGH us. When we are obedient to these texts, it shows our families, friends, and neighbors how deep and powerful God’s love is for each of us.

Each day for the duration of this series (January 12th–March 15th):

1. Read the day’s “one another” passage in it’s context.
2. Pray for an understanding heart and how you can be obedient to that day’s text.
3. Each day put this passage into practice with your family, friends, and neighbors.
4. Share your story and a photo of what God is doing in your life on Social Media using this hashtag: #OneAnotherAlameda

Sunday “Speak to one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs.” (Eph. 5:19)

Monday “...Instruct one another” (Romans 15:14)

Tuesday “Teach...one another” (Colossians 3:16)

Wednesday “... this is His command... to love one another... ” (1 John 3:23)

Thursday “... Clothe yourselves with humility toward one another... ” (1 Peter 5:5)

Friday “... if we love one another, God lives in us... ” (1 John 4:12)

Saturday “... Love each other.” (1 Thessalonians 4:9)

THIS WEEK’S #OneAnotherAlameda CHALLENGE

- Encourage other believers to worship the Lord.
- Share your favorite Psalm or Hymn with a friend.
- Play worship music in your car, especially when carpooling.
- Make a playlist of hymns and worship music to share with someone who is hurting or needs encouragement.
