TLCO NEEDS YOUR PLASTIC BAGS

With the start up of the Produce Give-Away and the Pantry in May we are in need of as many plastic shopping bags as we can get. Please bring your bags to church on Sunday!

The 5th Annual LCC Mother's Day Cup Cake Sale will take place on May 13 following worship in the main hallway. Cupcakes will be $2 each of 6 for $10. All proceeds benefit the LCC Youth Mission Trip.

Trinity Book Groups next selection is Jesus, My Father, The CIA, and Me: A Memoir...of Sorts by Ian Morgan Cron. Copies of the book are a little scarce at local libraries, but there are a few copies available and it's for sale at christianbook.com, amazon.com, and barnesandnoble.com. A mid-June discussion meeting is in the works.

Hospital Visitations

In my letter of call to serve as pastor to Trinity Lutheran Church, one of my primary responsibilities is to provide pastoral care. Providing pastoral care is always about meeting the needs of others, but I cannot attend to a need if I do not know it is there. This is specifically important when it involves hospitals and other medical care. I am always happy to come to the hospital, but you or a family member must let me know you are there. Unfortunately, I do not have a secret connection to learn these things on my own. I must rely on you to be sure this information is communicated to me.

In addition to knowing that you are there, I also would like to know that you would like a visit. During my times serving as a pastor and a chaplain, I know an added visit can take a lot of energy. I am always happy to come as I enjoy making these visits, but my goal is to be helpful in the ways that you need. You are invited to be your own advocate. You are permitted to decline a visit. Your privacy can be honored. You are allowed to share your desires and I will do my best to honor them.

For pastoral emergencies, it is always best to call my cell phone number at 740-680-2034.
