

SPECIAL PRESENTATION

Bartimaeus Cooperative Ministries

Presents a Stage Reading of:

“Awaiting Judgment”

A play by Rev Dr Art Cribbs that explores a conversation that might have been if Martin Luther King and Dietrich Bonhoeffer had been imprisoned together...

Rev Dr Art Cribbs
Playwright
Director

Kevin Ashworth
as Rev Dietrich
Bonhoeffer

Max Lawrence
as Rev Dr Martin
Luther King Jr.

Rhys Green
as Conscience and Narrator

ALLEN HALL
FOREST HOME CAMP
655 BURNHAM RD, OAK VIEW

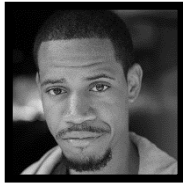

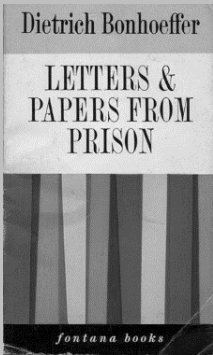

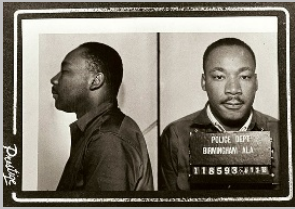

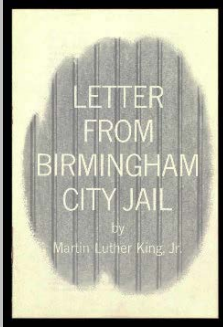

Feb 21st 2018
7.00 PM

Suggested Donation $15, tickets at the door

Performance is included in registration for the 2018 Bartimaeus Kinsler Institute
(www.bcm-net.org/study/ki2018)

For more information contact: inquiries@bcm-net.org

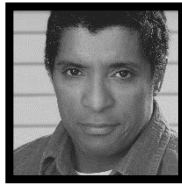

AWAITING JUDGMENT

Max Lawrence
as Rev Dr Martin Luther King Jr.

Kevin Ashworth
as Rev Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Rhys Green
as Conscience and Narrator

Rev Dr Art Cribbs
Playwright
Director

Alexis Miles
Crew Coordinator
Audio Coordinator

Max Lawrence is a native of Silver Spring, Maryland and holds a B.F.A. degree from Ithaca College. He is a proud company member and artist educator with Will Geer's Theatricum Botanicum in Topanga, CA. His Theatricum credits include To Kill a Mockingbird (Tom Robinson), A Midsummer Night's Dream (Lysander, Theseus, Peter Quince), The Imaginary Invalid (Cléante), and many more. He has also appeared in numerous TV shows, short films and commercials.

Kevin Ashworth has a wide and varied career in acting and in actor training. He has worked in film (Lay in Wait, Look in the Mirror), television (Scandal, Agent Carter, The Young and the Restless, Brotherhood) and local theatre (Hamlet, Pygmalion, A Streetcar Named Desire, Tombs of the Vanishing Indian)

Rhys Greene is co-founder and Artistic Director of the San Diego Black Ensemble Theatre. Mr. Greene has toured with Disney, Asian Story Theatre, National Theatre for children, Fights r' Us, La Jolla Playhouse and Travelling Lantern and numerous other productions. Mr Greene has come off two critically acclaimed productions, one was The Ballad of Emmett Till at Ion Theatre Co. and Father Comes Home from the War with Intrepid Theatre

The Rev. Dr. Art Cribbs is the former executive director of Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity (IM4HumanIntegrity), a statewide organization that advocates for immigrant rights and criminal justice reform through a racial and economic equity lens. He is pastor of the Los Angeles Filipino American United Church of Christ. He has an extensive background in broadcast news and talk radio. He produced and hosted the television specials, "Stories of the Soul: Life after 9/11" for which he won an Emmy Award and "Changing Faces of AIDS" which was nominated for an Emmy. He is a jazz-poet performance artist and playwright. He's written three original plays, including Awaiting Judgment.

Alexis Miles is passionate about communication that transforms hearts and minds. She is a founding board member of Motus Theater in Boulder CO, which created the award-winning play, Rocks Karma Arrows. Alexis has a long history of social activism and volunteer work. She currently works as the HR manager for an entrepreneurial division of GE. Alexis is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School and a member of the Michigan State Bar.

Feb 21st

2018

7.00 PM

ALLEN HALL
FOREST HOME CAMP
655 BURNHAM RD,
OAK VIEW,