New series starting January 13th – February 3rd at the contemporary service. This four-week series explores the important part everyone plays in the church. It is easy to see only certain ministries as important, but God has created everyone with gifts that have a critical role in the lives of God’s people. No matter how old we are, or what role we play, your part matters.

JAM
 Our children’s church, entitled JAM (Jesus and Me) takes place immediately following the Children’s Moment on most Sunday mornings and the children are escorted out of the sanctuary to the waiting volunteer parents, all of whom are background checked. The Children’s Moment is listed in the bulletin and it will be noted if the children are going upstairs or staying in worship each Sunday. This ministry takes place on the 3rd floor in Room 304 and the volunteer parents will share a Bible Story with the children and then allow some play time. Parents are requested to pick their children up in Room 304 immediately following the end of our service.

Please keep the following member(s) of our church family in your prayers:
Vicki Boone, Caldwell house
Pat Wise, home
Linda Karnes, home
Karen Painter, Troy Care
Linda Honeyman, chemo treatments

THANK YOU TO MY CHURCH FAMILY

It was such an icy, stormy Sunday when my door buzzer rang. When I answered the door Lowell and Mary Davis were delivering the beautiful altar flowers from Ron Erwin Family to me. I learned I was First Friend of the Week. All of the cards and well wishes have been a blessing and a brightening of these winter days. Thanks to all of you it has made my January birthday sunny. Blessing, Kay Kaebnick

Thank You

What a surprise today when I opened the door & was greeted by a beautiful bouquet of flowers from the church! Thank you so much for thinking of me and for the woman who delivered the flowers. God Bless you. Take care and once again thank you.

Stewardship Report

There will be no stewardship report this week.

New Member

Gail Honeyman Welch is married, 3 children, 4 grandchildren and 1 on the way. She lives in Piqua. I grew up in this church, I have some very fond memories of Sunday School, alpha and omega groups, vacation bible school (attended both and helped out) confirmation class and sitting in the balcony with my church friends. My faith in and love for God has always been strong. My faithfulness to church however has waned, but I've come to realize it's good to be with believers. I don't have to handle everything on my own...and more importantly I don't want to. I see the support this church and its people have given my mom (Linda Honeyman) in her fight with cancer. The love and caring she gets from you all is amazing (trust me...not every church has such a great support system!) I want what she has!! There may come a time when I need the support like everyone has given to my mom. But in the meantime, I'm happy to give that kind of support to those who may need it. The first time I walked back in through those doors last summer, I felt like I was at home. Life is good!

It Is Well With My Soul

Text by
Horatio G. Spafford, 1873

Arranged by Lloyd Larson
Tune: VILLE DU HAVRE
by Philip P. Bliss, 1876

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say,
“It is well, it is well, with my soul!”

Refrain:

*It is well, with my soul,
It is well, with my soul,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.*

My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought,
My sin, not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more.
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

Refrain

And Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.

Refrain
