Do Whatever He Tells You

John 2:1-11 (CEB)

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee. Jesus’ mother was there, and

<sup>2</sup> Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the celebration. <sup>3</sup> When the wine ran out, Jesus’ mother said to him, “They don’t have any wine.”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus replied, “Woman, what does that have to do with me? My time hasn’t come yet.”

<sup>5</sup> His mother told the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” <sup>6</sup> Nearby were six stone water jars used for the Jewish cleansing ritual, each able to hold about twenty or thirty gallons.

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water,” and they filled them to the brim.

<sup>8</sup> Then he told them, “Now draw some from them and take it to the headwaiter,” and they did. <sup>9</sup> The headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine. He didn’t know where it came from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew.

The headwaiter called the groom <sup>10</sup> and said, “Everyone serves the good wine first.

They bring out the second-rate wine only when the guests are drinking freely. You kept the good wine until now.” <sup>11</sup> This was the first miraculous sign that Jesus did in

Cana of Galilee. He revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him

Preschool Press!

A mother of two boys who previously attended First Kids Preschool, recently contacted the preschool about enrolling her third child for the 2019-2020 school year. Her email contained the following message:

Both boys are doing great in kindergarten and 2nd grade! After my youngest son's first week of school, I got a note home from his teacher saying "I bet your son went to First Kids last year didn't he? We can always tell which ones come from First Kids. They are always so much more prepared."

THE TWELVE SEATS AT THE TABLE

Inviting all men to join in the fellowship and the message during Troy First's presentation of The Twelve Seats at the Table on April 17 and 18 at First Place. Be part of the experience as one of the disciples. Growing a beard is optional and individual rehearsals are at your convenience. Tom Rogers, a former disciple in The Twelve, can fill you in on all the details and expectations. Don't miss a chance to be part of this powerful aspect of worship. Please check out the Youtube video of our last production under Twelve Seats at the Table – posted by Greg Taylor.

After the cast is set, both men and women can participate as part of the production team. A rule of thumb is that twice as many are needed backstage as out front.

This review of The Twelve Seats was posted on the Eldridge Publishing website in the fall of 2018. This church's experience is what we hope for, and have gotten, every time it is presented.

"Moving! Beautiful! Just the setting spoke His presence. A great reminder of what happened in the days before Easter. Also, gave everyone a personal understanding of who each disciple was. Our church was full, had to bring out extra chairs and could have heard a pin drop thru the whole play. This says a lot because we had approx. 135+ and being a small church we didn't have a microphone system. We already have requests for 2 shows next year." -- K. P., Zion Church Youth, Cleveland, GA
