Scripture Reading: Luke 16: 1-13, pg. 74 (NRSV)

Susan Furlong

Then Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. 2 So he summoned him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.' 3 Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. 4 I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.' 5 So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' 6 He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.' 7 Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.' 8 And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. 9 And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes. 10 "Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. 11 If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? 12 And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? 13 No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

JAM

Our children's church, entitled JAM (Jesus and Me) takes place immediately following the Children's Moment at the 10:45 traditional service on most Sunday mornings and the children are escorted out of the sanctuary to the waiting volunteer parents, all of whom are background checked. The Children's Moment is listed in the bulletin and it will be noted if the children are going upstairs or staying in worship each Sunday. This ministry takes place on the 3rd floor in Room 304 and the volunteer parents will share a Bible Story with the children and then allow some play time. Parents are requested to pick their children up in Room 304 immediately following the end of our service. This ministry runs from the Sunday after Labor Day through the Sunday before Memorial Day. We take a break for the summer months.

Amazing Grace! Eternal Life!

by Travis Boyd

There is a love sent down to man
A rugged cross, a spotless Lamb,
A life laid down, a sacrifice,
Amazing grace! Eternal life!

There is a hope beyond the grave,
With love so deep and power to save.
Rising above all earthly strife.
Amazing grace! Eternal life!

There is a peace that all can know.
It calms the heart and heals the soul.
“Come unto me,” the Savior cries.
Amazing grace! Eternal life!

God so loved the world that He gave His Son
for us to believe in Him,
for the Son was not sent to condemn the world
but to save us from our sin.

There is a home prepared for all,
Who on the name of Jesus call,
A place of rest, a throne on high.
Amazing grace! Eternal life!
