Day 3: Jesus Saves Us

John 3:16; Colossians 1:13–14

What has Jesus done for you?

Day 4: We Can Help Others Follow Jesus

Matthew 28: 18–20

Write a prayer for a friend who doesn't know Jesus:

IMB missionaries go to places where people don't know about Jesus. They tell them the good news., help them follow Jesus, start churches, train leaders, and encourage them to grow and do these same things in their community and in other places. We call this the missionary task. To learn more about it, visit imb.org.

Day 5: You Can Be Part of God's Mission

Acts 1:8; Isaiah 6:8

What are some ways you and your family can be involved in missions?

Additional Activities:

1. Pray for a different country each week using a world map.
2. Write a letter or draw a picture to encourage a missionary.
3. Learn how to say "Jesus loves you" in three different languages.
4. Host a family prayer night focused on unreached people groups.
5. Read a missionary biography as a family and discuss what you learned.
6. Make a care package for a missionary family.
7. Create a prayer jar with names of missionaries and countries.
8. Cook a meal from another culture and pray for that country.
9. Memorize a Bible verse about missions (e.g., Matthew 28:19–20).
10. Donate to a church or IMB missions as a family.

Thank you for spending time as a family learning about God's heart for the world and how you can be part of His mission. This is just the beginning! There are many ways you and your family can continue to grow in understanding and action. To discover more about how you can pray, give, go, and send, visit imb.org. There you'll find stories, resources, and opportunities to help you and your family take the next step in sharing Jesus with the nations—starting right where you are.
