

Interview a Missionary

Cut the paper into strips, fold them, and place them in a bowl. Allow children to take turns drawing a strip and asking the missionary the question written on it.

What part of the world do you live in?

What language does your people group speak?

What is the main religion of your people group?

What do you like about the people you serve?

How do you meet people?

What do you like to eat there?

What's something interesting about the area where you serve?

How do you teach people to follow Jesus?

How do you say "hello" in the language of your people group?

What kind of homes do most people live in?

How do most people travel to work or school?

What is church like there?

What is school like there?

How can we pray for you?
