A Message From Jeff...

FAITH PROMISE COMMITMENT SUNDAY—THIS SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 23

FAITH PROMISE COMMITMENT SUNDAY

A “Faith Promise Commitment” is a prayerfully-arrived-at decision of how much of one’s income to give back to the Lord’s work. It is a sacrificial amount beyond what one can “safely” afford to give. It is a faith covenant with God, committing beyond what one can see to give, with the understanding that God is to provide the funds as we step toward Him in faith.

We have asked you to please place your Faith Promise Commitment card in a place where you will see it often. Pray earnestly that God will lead you in your decision, then on November 23, Faith Promise Commitment Sunday, these cards will be received during both of our worship services.

“Faith Promise” is a time of personal soul-searching as we each ask, “Lord, what would You have me give to Your work at BCC in 2026?” It is a time of heightening our vision as we consider what God can do through us in Batesville, in the surrounding communities, and around the world. Be praying for this time of spiritual growth as individuals and as a church family.

ELDER/DEACON SUGGESTION FORMS

If you want to suggest someone for consideration to serve as an Elder or Deacon at BCC, please complete a Suggestion Form. Study the Biblical qualifications and pray about your suggestion. This is a private matter between you and God. We ask that you not discuss it with anyone—the individual, your spouse, or others, but instead you talk about it with God in prayer. The deadline for turning in Suggestion Forms is Wednesday, December 3.
