

A Message From Jeff...

The following message was shared from the Batesville Community School Corporation, and recognizes James Dice, deployed husband of BCC member Alyson Dice.

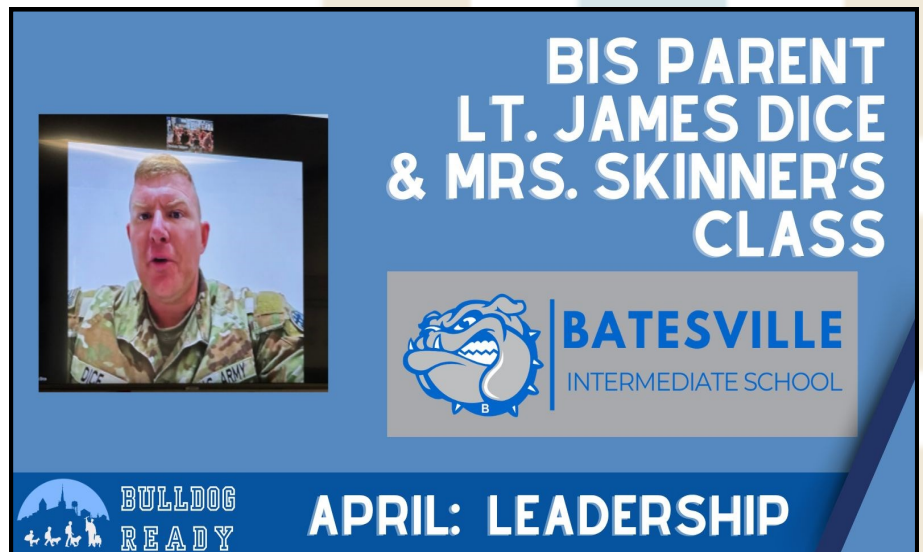

“April's Bulldog Ready Attribute of LEADERSHIP was on display when Mrs. Skinner's 4th grade class at Batesville Intermediate School was able to participate in a video call with parent James Dice, who serves as a leader in the Army Reserves. Lieutenant Dice is the father of Savannah, one of Mrs. Skinner's students.

As a leader in the Army, Lt. Dice is in charge of approximately 50 soldiers. He told the students that leadership skills are important when looking out for the safety of his troops. He doesn't lead alone, as he has a group of sergeants to whom he can delegate. Ultimately, he needs to make sure his troops are well taken care of.

He explained that other Bulldog Ready attributes, such as confidence, resilience, and empathy, are also important as he leads.

Thank you, Lt. Dice, for being willing to share your leadership experience with our students!”

Love,
Jeff
