

MIDWEEK UPDATE

JULY 7, 2026

A Message From Jeff...

First Time Guest

Last Sunday we had two special first-time guests visiting our worship services. James Dice, husband of Alyson and father of Jessica, Savannah, and Zachary, returned from his eleven-month deployment in Kuwait and was able to worship with us at the first service. Alyson and Savannah were baptized here last February. We have prayed for James' safe return home since that time. Join me in thanking God for re-uniting the Dice family!

At the second service we had the privilege of meeting Magnolia Siebert, newborn daughter of Cole and Cami Siebert. She made her debut at her home church by sleeping through the service peacefully. :-) It was great to have James and Magnolia join us for the very first time.

Each week we have first-time guests coming to attend our worship services. Please give them a great BCC Welcome. Certainly, never say to someone, "You are sitting in my seat." We don't have reserved seating! I understand our Midwestern-tendency as "creatures of habit," to sit in the same vicinity each week. We do that at restaurants, too, but be a gracious host/hostess if a guest has sat where you typically would be sitting.

Our guests report they appreciate the friendly interest they receive and the chance to connect with people at our complimentary breakfast in the Café.

Remember, "You only have one chance to make a good first impression." Someone's eternal destiny could be affected by whether made to feel included or excluded. We must always be willing to enlarge the circle for the next people whom God sends us.

SHINE! T-shirts

Our SHINE! BCC T-shirts are available for pick-up on Sunday. They turned out great! Don't worry if you didn't pre-order. We have ordered additional shirts. Our cost is $13/shirt.

Continue to keep our Staff Transition in your prayers as we watch for God to identify the person/people to help with guiding worship and the ministry to our teens.

Love,

Jeff
