

Sam Willoughby - Update

Hi! My name is Sam Willoughby, and I recently started working part-time for Young Life in Columbia! I work as the WyldLife Coordinator, so I spend a lot of time hanging out with middle schoolers, discipling them, and teaching about the love that Jesus has for them! Columbia WyldLife is in its infancy right now, and we are trying to grow it so that we can reach even more kids and see transformation in the communities throughout the city! This summer, we are taking a group of middle school kids to camp for the first time, and I am so excited about that! Prayers for the week at camp to be impactful for the kids and for the growth of WyldLife in Columbia would be incredibly helpful and greatly appreciated!

I am also fundraising money for my salary to transition to a full-time position in the area, so if you want to donate or have any other questions about the ministry or how you could support it, please contact me! My phone number is (816) 752-5077.
