From the Pastor's Desk.....

A well-known English deist, Anthony Collins of the seventeenth century, was walking one day when he crossed paths with a commoner. "Where are you going?" asked Collins.

"To church, sir."

"What are you going to do there?"

"Worship God, sir."

"Is your God a great or a little God?" Asked Collins.

"He is both, sir."

"How can He be both?"

"He is so great, sir, that the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him; and so little that He can dwell in my heart."

Collins later declared that this simple answer had more effect on his mind than all the volumes he had ever read about God, and all the lectures he had ever heard.

This Great God dwells within our hearts and commands us through Christ to love one another as Jesus loved us. Because God abides within us, we all have a spark of divinity within us. So, when we see our brothers and sisters as God sees them, we cannot help but treat them with respect and love.

Our church has been striving to practice God's love with one another and with our neighbors in our community. I would like us to continue to encourage one another to see God dwelling in every one so that we may experience the joy of sharing Christ's love with our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Yes, indeed, our God is so great that the heaven of heavens cannot hold God; and that great God is always dwell in our hearts not because God is so little but because God's love doesn't have limit. Have a blessed fall!

Love in Christ,

Sukja

We're here to Serve

- The task of the Ushers/Greeters is very important to the life of the congregation. They are the first contact any member or visitor has with AUMC. That first impression is very important and sets the tone for how people are likely to experience worship. Thank you for serving Christ in this way.
- Because this is so important, please be aware of the following things:
 - As you greet people, try not to engage in extended conversations with friends and family. This may prevent you from being aware of a new face.
 - Introduce yourself – even if the person you're greeting is a member of the congregation. That person may not know your name. If you think it's a member but do not know that person's name say something like: "I'm sorry, I don't have a name to go with your face."
 - If a visitor comes, ask if you may help them find a seat, or introduce them to someone with whom they may sit during the worship service. Let them know where they can find the restrooms. Please remember to tell the Pastor about the visitor (especially their name).
 - Remember, your job does not end at the beginning of the Prelude. Remain near the doors until the first hymn starts. That way if someone is running late they don't have to hunt for a bulletin. If the sanctuary is crowded, help them find a seat.
 - Remind congregation to fill out prayer request cards as soon as possible, as they will be collected during the first hymn.
 - Ushers will collect prayer request cards from the center aisle while singing the first hymn and give them to the pastor. If you hold up the prayer request cards with both of your hands, it will be helpful for the congregation to know that you are collecting the prayer request cards.
 - Do not shut either set of inner doors. Closed doors say: "You are not welcome!"
 - When it's time to take the offering, please stand up and be ready at the back of the sanctuary before the music starts. It's okay to get up while the Pastor is introducing the offering time.
 - Come forward and receive the offering plates from the Pastor.
 - Start down the center aisle. Once at the back of the sanctuary walk to the front of the outside aisles and move towards the back.
 - Wait at the end of the center aisle until the Doxology begins and then walk up the center aisle and hand the plates to the Pastor.
 - Stay at the altar rail until after the Offertory Prayer (bring a bulletin with you so you may pray as well) and then return to your seats at the close of the prayer.

Your sponsorship and dedication will be printed in the bulletin for that Sunday. The same goes for sponsoring bulletins. (Please see page 6) Please consider signing up. If sponsoring flowers, call Albanese Florist (610-588-0441) and place an order with them under the Ackermanville UMC account.
