

1. Wins over the last month

- We had a great first meeting for our Envision DR trip. Everyone on the team was in attendance. We shared a meal and went through the training manual as well as a lot of other material. We covered a lot of ground and had a great first team connection.
- We have had quite a few new students come through our doors (youth group and Sunday school) over the past few months.
- We finished out the year well and we able to launch with a lot of enthusiasm even though we had a two-week hiatus. We had Audra and Timmy Jackson share at YG about their work in Alaska which was very neat. which was
- Last week the district reached out because they were looking to fill some midweeks spots that some touring IWs had open in the coming months. We were able to secure international workers from France Todd and Terri Althaus in March. We had Todd as one of our Missions Conference IW back in 2009. It will be great to connect with them after all of these years and give the teens another chance to hear from an IW.
