VI. Old Business

- Roof bids are coming in around $150,000. Trustees will present their top 2-3 proposals along with their recommendation. A decision will be made in the August meeting.
- Security team – need to get the training in place so we can move forward. A request was made to research cameras over the exterior doors. Pastor Lu will check into them. A proposal has been made that if the cameras are less than $2,000 to move forward.
Motion to approve – Bill – seconded - Glann

VII. New Business

- Due to scheduling conflict, there will not be a board meeting in July.
- Simon Bartels is working on a blood drive for a school project. He would like to use our facility. This was approved by the board.
- Looking to implement a teaching rotation for the topics of; marriage, parenting and finances. The marriage class will be a 6-month cohort that will meet 3 times in those 6 months, which will include one overnight trip. The finance classes will be taught by Orchard Alliance, which is the financial arm of the Alliance. They offer two types of classes; one for retirees and one for young people.

Motion to adjourn – Jayme – seconded Bob C.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:55pm
