

Sept. Board Report

Lead Pastor

Wins:

We've had many wins over the last month. I would like to share one: a man sent me a friend request on social media. I looked to see if I knew who he was. I didn't recognize the name, but it only showed me posts from 6 months ago or older. The posts were dark, with pentagrams and skeletons. I was worried about accepting the friend request because I thought maybe this guy just wanted to post bad stuff under my posts, but I thought he reached out for a reason, so I accepted it. As soon as I did, I went back to his page, and the first post was a Picture of an open Bible to Romans 12. He wrote about how much God changed his life, how his kids love church so much, and how he wishes he hadn't been so stubborn and had stepped into church and a relationship with Jesus sooner. Yes, there are a lot of good things: giving, attendance, but when you see life change, that is what it is all about.

Struggles:

No real struggles currently. God is working, and we are trying our best to keep up.

Goals:

- To work closely with Cindy to get the connection piece implemented for fall.
- This Sunday is Back to Church Sunday; be in prayer.
- Homecoming outreach
- District Prayer Conference
