Prelude: In the Garden/What a Friend We have in Jesus - arr. Adams
Emily Bentgen, oboe

Welcome

Call to Worship: from Philippians 2

Leader: If there's any comfort in Christ, any consolation from love,

People: Then let us be of the same mind.

Leader: If there's any partnership in the Spirit, any tender affection and sympathy,

People: Then may we be of the same mind.

Opening Prayer: Come Holy Spirit and bring your comfort and consolation, that we may be of the same mind. Come Spirit of love and weave your partnership among us, so that others may come to be of the same mind as Christ. Amen.

Opening Hymn: UMH 121 - There is a Wideness in God's Mercy

Scripture: Philippians 2:5-11 8:45 Diane Kelly 11:15 Ellen Cavanaugh

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, assuming human likeness.

And being found in appearance as a human, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Therefore, God exalted him even more highly and gave him the name that is above every other name, so that at the name given to Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
