Prelude: When the Saints Go Marching In - Groom te Velde

Welcome

Call to Worship:
Leader: We gather in the presence of a great cloud of witnesses.
People: Remembering the ordinary and extraordinary faithful who have gone before us, whose love, courage and perseverance still guide our way.
Leader: We are not alone.
People: We are bound together in the body of Christ, across time and space, even death does not divide. God is greater than anything else.

Opening Prayer:
Merciful God, we thank you today for all the saints, those known and unknown to us, whose lives have shaped our faith and pointed us to grace. Remind us how we are part of one unbroken family, united in Christ. Amen.

Hymn: UMH 711 - For All the Saints

Scripture: Matthew 22:34-40 8:45-Dave Brewster, 11:14-Allen Hester
When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, an expert in the law, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, " 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."
