

HOPE FOR ESTONIA

Company
June 2020

This last month has been an adventure. I Passed my university Estonian class, we started meeting in the Agape Kohvik on Sundays, and I have been able to meet with and share Jesus with many friends here.

After the long dark winter, we are enjoying the long sunny days and warm weather. Next week will be the 26th year of camp Balchyoca, and despite many limitations I pray it will be a blessing to the young ones who take part. Randall and I will be teaching a class on the good Samaritan “Owe nothing to anyone—except for your obligation to love one another. If you love your neighbor, you will fulfill the requirements of God’s law.” -Romans 13:8

and how you can be a hero when you help others.

A friend of mine from Nigeria has been visiting our church services and staying to ask questions about the sermon and to encourage us. It has been a blessing.

I am continually in awe of how little Estonians know about God and Christianity. I have been asked many questions about God, Jesus, and the Bible as well as the point of Christianity and how we know God loves us. Please pray for wisdom as God works on their hearts and draws them to him.

SUMMER PLANTING

Story Subtitle or summary

Pictured left is my Estonian class picnic after having nearly a whole semester without seeing my classmates. Sitting on my left in this picture is Shahid, a Muslim who has questions about Jesus and Christianity.

God has been teaching me a lot about himself and opening my eyes to the need we have for him. As I walk with my lost friends, I trust that I continue to plant and water seeds that he will give the increase. I am so blessed to be working in a place where most people have not heard the gospel and do not know Jesus. I pray that I represent him well and teach his work accurately.

I have also been blessed to spend some quality time with my Estonian sisters in Christ here, studying, baking and playing with bubbles with their daughters. It takes time here to build trust and the right to speak, but I have been praising God for all the open doors he has set before me. Thank you all for your continue love, prayers, and support. I pray God continues to bless you as you serve him faithfully.

Serving Him with you,
Hope Goode
