

Reaching Our Community
with HOPE for Life

When Sara and Istvan saw their baby for the first time, their whole worlds changed. Watching their little peanut on the ultrasound screen confirmed their suspicion of pregnancy and sent both soon-to-be parents into a tailspin of emotion. For Sara, it was love at first sight, but Istvan felt shocked and confused.

Istvan signed up to meet with one of our male mentors, Tim, here at Mosaic. He walked back into our office a week later, where Tim answered questions and provided options and resources for the first-time parent. After their meeting, Istvan picked up the phone and called Sara. He told her, "Let's do this."

Today, Istvan is a loving father and Sara is a confident mother to Chloe. Now, nine months old, Chloe is a content and happy baby who wears a lot of pink and hair bows. She and her daddy are best friends.

Chloe fought her way into the world 4 weeks early, only 11 weeks before Sara's mom passed away. Sara believes their daughter arrived early to spend more time with her grandma, and to be a comfort during the biggest loss of Sara's life.

Istvan and Sara could not imagine their lives without Chloe by their side. She is their biggest pride and joy. “Just her pure existence has made our lives better. Chloe as all children are true blessings from God, and she really has been ours. Life before her was boring and routine. Life with her, is AMAZING and everyday there is a new discovery.”
