WMU-EPBA SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Please give a brief statement of your calling on a separate sheet of paper.

Dear Church Leader:

As the spiritual leader of your congregation, you may be mentoring an individual or be aware of a college student who is pursuing a Church/Convention related vocation. The Woman's Missionary Union (WMU) and the El Paso Baptist Association (EPBA) offer scholarships to assist in the study of serving our Lord and Savior.

The purpose of the Woman's Missionary Union Scholarship Fund is to promote the Christian education of Undergraduate and Post Graduate students from the El Paso area who feel called to a Church/Convention relation vocation. This fund is supported by contributions from WMU members, Baptist Men, Sunday school classes, individuals and interested groups.

The WMU-EPBA offers one undergraduate scholarship of $250.00 per semester and one post-graduate scholarship of $250.00 per semester. The following are the requirements for all applicants:

1. Applicant must complete the WMU-EPBA Scholarship Application
2. Applicant must have a current overall 3.0 grade point average and must submit a copy of an official document certifying this fact;
3. Applicant must submit a copy of their acceptance letter from an approved Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) college or university. Please note that a list of SBC approved colleges and universities is available at: <http://www.sbc.net/colleges/>.

Applications from potential Scholarship recipients must be submitted by June 1st for the Fall semester and by November 1st for the Spring semester. Full-time or part-time student status is acceptable for an application to be submitted. Further guidelines may apply.

If you are unable to contact me at the number listed, please leave a message with the EPBA office at (915) 544-8671.
