UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful Father, You know all things about Your children. Even though our flesh fosters darkness within us of greed, self-indulgence and other manners of evil, Your Spirit in us protects us and gives light. Therefore, we ask You to search our hearts and know our thoughts. We confess all hidden sins to You now. Cleanse us thoroughly from all unrighteousness. Forgive our considerations of wickedness and free us to live each day in sincerity and truth. We pray this in Jesus' precious name. Amen.

(Please take a moment to silently confess your sins to the Lord)

PROCLAMATION OF FORGIVENESS Psalm 130:3-4

NEWS

Memorial Day This Memorial Day, we pause to remember and honor the brave men and women who have faithfully served and sacrificed for our nation. We are grateful for the freedoms we enjoy because of their willingness to serve.

As a church, we also give thanks to God for His care, His protection, and the hope we have in Him. Please join us in praying for military families, for those who are serving, and for peace in our nation and throughout the world.

New Event America 250 Unbound! June 3, 11am-2pm. This will be a curated collection of literary jewels. An exhibition of important children's books in celebration of the 250th anniversary of the nation's independence will be on display in our Fellowship Hall. This event is hosted by the non-profit private lending library, Families United Lending Library and is free and open to the public.

The HPC Nominating Committee The committee is accepting open nominations, as it begins to seek qualified candidates who sense God's call to willingly and faithfully serve in the office of Ruling Elder or Deacon. Any nominee must give prior consent to be nominated. Please submit candidate names to Pastor Shawn Carafa, the church office, or to a member of the Nominating Committee (Charley Schmidt, Bill Homjak, Jim Damicone, Judy Emert, Diane Schwarz.)

Bible Studies at 9:30am will go on summer break after our last class on May 31 and resume in the fall.

Volunteer Spotlight Diane Schwarz
Today we would like to thank a faithful servant whose humble heart and willing spirit have blessed our church family for many years. Whether serving as a Deacon, teaching Sunday School, caring for children as our VBS Nurse, or quietly tending to the beauty of our church grounds as part of the HPC garden ministry, she has continually given of herself with kindness, faithfulness, and love.

Her servant's heart is seen not only in the many roles she has filled, but in the quiet and steady way she is always available to help wherever needed. Through every act of service, she has pointed others not to herself, but to God, giving Him all the glory.

The Passover with the Disciples

¹² And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, his disciples said to him, “Where will you have us go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?” ¹³ And he sent two of his disciples and said to them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him, ¹⁴ and wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says, Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’ ¹⁵ And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; there prepare for us.” ¹⁶ And the disciples set out and went to the city and found it just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷ And when it was evening, he came with the twelve. ¹⁸ And as they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me.” ¹⁹ They began to be sorrowful and to say to him one after another, “Is it I?” ²⁰ He said to them, “It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the dish with me. ²¹ For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

Institution of the Lord's Supper

²² And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, “Take; this is my body.” ²³ And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. ²⁴ And he said to them, “This is my blood of the ^[a] covenant, which is poured out for many. ²⁵ Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”
