

THE GREAT COMMISSION

CHRIS SCHWEISTHAL

1. Chris said that "Sport is a microcosm of life." Do you think this is true? Why or why not?
2. Can you worship God and doubt at the same time? Why or why not?
3. Read Matthew 28:16-20. What is Jesus telling his disciples—and us—in the Great Commission?
4. How is our obedience to the Great Commission an expression of our relationship with God?
5. What emotion is stirred up when you hear about the Great Commission? Excitement? Hope? Fear? Guilt?
6. Chris mentioned that sport is a universal language. What did he mean by that?
7. How have you seen sport be used as a universal language?
8. What are you going to do with the gift God has given you?
9. Do you feel God calling you towards any next steps when you listened to Chris' session? If so, what is it?
10. How can others be praying for you this week?
