

Message Notes

From Death to Life

Luke 7:11-17

#1 _____ can be terrifying.

#2 The wages of _____ is death.

#3 When we are most _____, God's _____ is boundless.

#4 But the _____ of God is _____.

Group Questions

From Death to Life

Luke 7:11-17

1. Why do you think so many people avoid thinking about death?

What impact does this avoidance have on our lives and faith?

2. When have you experienced fear about losing someone you love or your own life, and how did you respond in that moment?

3. What comforts you in the most difficult moments of your life?

4. Read Luke 7:11-17. Jesus told the widow, "Don't cry," and then raised her son from the dead. What does this show you about Jesus' compassion and power?

How does that encourage you today?

5. Eternal life is not just a future hope but a present reality. How can living with that truth change the way you face fear or uncertainty in your life?

6. How should we respond when we are with people who are facing their death or the death of the people that they love?

7. What specific situation or relationship in your life does this message speak into right now?

Message Notes

From Death to Life

Luke 7:11-17

#1 Death can be terrifying.

#2 The wages of sin is death.

#3 When we are most powerless, God's grace is boundless.

#4 But the gift of God is eternal life.

Bible Reading for Today

Luke 7:11-17

¹¹ Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him. ¹² As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. ¹³ When the Lord saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, “Don’t cry.”

¹⁴ Then he went up and touched the bier they were carrying him on, and the bearers stood still. He said, “Young man, I say to you, get up!” ¹⁵ The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

¹⁶ They were all filled with awe and praised God. “A great prophet has appeared among us,” they said. “God has come to help his people.” ¹⁷ This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding country.

