

Message Notes

Wandering Part 4: Anger

Numbers 20

→ anger is bad?

#1 If you _____ your temper, prepare to _____.

→ the relationship of anger and love

#2 Christians should _____ about the things that God _____ about.

→ Moses struggled with handling anger - Numbers 20:6-12

#3 Disordered _____ leads to disordered _____.

→ who's will do you care about the most?

#4 Respond to anger _____ not _____.

Why am I angry?

How can I respond in love? (Ephesians 4:31-32)

Group Questions

Wandering Part 4: Anger

Numbers 20

1. How would you describe your relationship with anger?
2. What are some of the consequences of a person who continually loses his/her temper?
3. Is anger always bad? Explain your answer.

How are anger and love related?
4. Read Numbers 20:1-12. In what ways could Moses have justified his anger?

What was at the heart of Moses' sin?
5. Why is it so important to stop when you feel anger rising up in your heart?
6. Read Ephesians 4:31. Why is it important to get rid of rage and anger quickly?
7. Read Ephesians 4:32. How is forgiveness the key to getting rid of anger?
8. Our broken world needs Jesus more than ever. How is that true?