

Message Notes | When You Pray

Part 5: Daily Bread

1 Kings 17:7-16

→ the needs of being finite

#1 Which of your needs are you _____
for God to fill?

→ a wadi and some fowl - 1 Kings 17:1-6

#2 God is interested in your _____ needs.

→ a widow and some bread - 1 Kings 17:7-15

#3 _____ to what God has _____
to you.

→ two promises: Matthew 6:25,33 & Philippians 4:6-7

#4 Praying for daily bread reflects a desperate need for
_____.

Group Questions | When You Pray

Part 5: Daily Bread

1 Kings 17:7-16

1. How many days' worth of food do you think the average American keeps in their house? If you're comfortable sharing, do you think you are above or below that average?

2. What can it do to a person's faith if they continuously struggle with having less than they need? (Positive or negative)

What can it do to a person's faith if they continuously experience having more than they need? (Positive or negative)

3. Read 1 Kings 17:1-6. Why send Elijah to a brook (wadi) when God knew it would eventually dry up? What did Elijah learn from this experience?

4. God created you as a physical being. Why is it important to remember that cares for both your body and your soul?

5. Read Philippians 4:6-7. What does God promise a person will have when they bring their anxiety to him in prayer? What does that mean?

6. Summarize the encouragements you hear in the Bible into one or two sentences as you answer this question: Why should a person not worry about their life or be anxious for the future?

7. When anxious thoughts enter your mind, it is good to cling to God's promises. Talk about the difference it can make for you when you do that.

What's a promise or two that has made a difference for you?

Message Notes | When You Pray

Part 5: Daily Bread

1 Kings 17:7-16

→ the needs of being finite

#1 Which of your needs are you desperate for God to fill?

→ a wadi and some fowl - 1 Kings 17:1-6

#2 God is interested in your physical needs.

→ a widow and some bread - 1 Kings 17:7-15

#3 Cling to what God has promised to you.

→ two examples: Matthew 6:25,33 & Philippians 4:6-7

#4 Praying for daily bread reflects a desperate need for God.

