Jesus called to them "Follow me..."

"As he was walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, & his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, 'Come after me, & I will make you fishers of men.' At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat & their father & they followed him." (Mt 4: 12 – 15).

Jesus is 'light' in the midst of 'darkness.'

Two of the twelve tribes of Israel, Zebulun and Naphtali, which were located in the Northern part of Israel, might well have made the words from Simon and Garfunkel their own 700 years before the coming of the Messiah: "Hello darkness, my old friend." They lived close to the "district of the Gentiles," a reference to their proximity to a hostile country, Assyria, which attacked them, leading to the prophet Isaiah referring to them as a "people who lived in darkness" - gloom and doom.

Then, the prophet Isaiah, announces joyful news: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light: upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone." Jesus references that passage in today's Gospel (Matthew 4: 12 – 23) when he moved to Capernaum, which is in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, and Jesus himself becomes "the light shining in the midst of darkness and gloom." He is the "light [that] has arisen."

Time and time again, Jesus refers to himself as "the light of the world," bringing hope to those of us who may feel like we are going through our own "dark night of the soul." In John (8:2) Jesus tells us, "I am the light of the world; anyone who follows me will not be walking in dark, but will have the light of life."

The prologue in John's Gospel begins with "In the beginning was the Word...and the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us." The birth of the child Jesus is a "new beginning." It was a "new beginning" in the lives of Mary and Joseph; in the lives of the shepherds and the wise men; in the life of John the Baptist; and, finally, in the lives of the fishermen whom Jesus "called to follow me," - in today's Gospel, Peter, Andrew, James and John. 17 young men in the Diocese of Venice accepted Jesus' call "to follow me." We see the state and challenge of the "Harvest" in "The Lord's Vineyard" in the U.S. in the next page.

The invitation is to embrace Jesus and follow his way by becoming his disciples. If we do so, our lives will indeed be filled with "light" and "rejoicing" even in the midst of the "dark night." It is up to us to respond. In Jn 8:12, Jesus tells us, "I am the light of the world; anyone who follows me will not be walking in dark, but will have the light of life." Stewardship is a "way of life" that puts Jesus at the center. In coming to know him, we come to know who we are and what our "mission" is. Let us look to Jesus our "light" in the midst of "darkness" and let us respond generously and live accordingly – the "new beginning" ushered in by the birth of Jesus can and will become a "new beginning" in my life & in the lives of those who welcome him. As the Italians say, 'Avanti.'

Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity

January 18 – 25, 2026

In his farewell address at the Last Supper (John 15 – 17), Jesus prayed: "... for those who will believe in me ... that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you..." Why? "...that the world may believe that you sent me" (Jn17:2).

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) ... invites all to celebrate the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, January 18-25. This week provides an opportunity to join together and pray as Jesus did "that they may all be one." (John 17:21)

Somos Teófilo, Amados por Dios

San Lucas inicia con un mensaje a Teófilo. Se sabe poco sobre esta figura, pero sabemos que su nombre griego, Teófilo, significa “amigo de Dios” o “amado por Dios”, una persona en particular en un momento particular de la historia, pero también estaba escribiendo para ti y para mí, para que podamos ver “la verdad de lo que se [nos] ha enseñado”.

Jesús lee de Isaías: “El Espíritu del Señor está sobre mí, porque me ha ungido para llevar a los pobres la buena nueva...” Después de leer, Jesús dice “Hoy mismo se ha cumplido este pasaje de la Escritura que acaban de oír”.

Deténganse en ese momento durante unos minutos. Dos milenios después, nosotros, también amados por Dios, tenemos la gracia de leer la misma historia, de vivir el mismo momento para que también podamos ver “la verdad de lo que se [nos] ha enseñado”. Pon tu nombre, y ánade “amado/a por Dios.” — Pamela Kavanaugh

OLG Parish 2026 Diocesan Catholic Faith Appeal Goal is $132,000

In today's 1st reading, the prophet Isaiah (8:23 – 9:3), announces joyful news: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light..." In today's Gospel (Mt 4: 12 – 23) Jesus refers to himself as "the light shining in the midst of darkness and gloom."

The Mission of every disciple of Jesus is to allow Jesus to reach out through them to be a "light shining in the midst of darkness and gloom" in our time, among those hurting & with a variety of needs in our midst, in our parishes and Diocese.

The 2026 Diocesan Catholic Faith Appeal is the most effective outreach for OLG Parishioners, to do this.

What is the most pressing outreach needs and, for what is its proceeds in the 2026 CFA used for?

The Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA) is a Diocesan-wide fundraising effort to support programs such as: Pastoral Outreach & Ministries; missions, poor parishes and convents; Catholic Charities; Evangelization; Worship; Respect Life; Peace & Social Justice; Vocations & Seminarians; Catholic Education; Diocesan administrative support services; etc. On an annual basis, parishes in the Diocese of Venice make a required contribution to financially support these efforts. The Catholic Faith Appeal is a means by which all parishioners can take part in helping their Parish to meet its contribution. A Parish Catholic Faith Appeal goal is determined by the income of the Parish and is not based on the number of registered families because our population grows in the winter months from northern visitors. This greatly adds to the success of the Appeal.

How much should I give?

As stewards, we should take the time to reflect on our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure. Giving back to God, either through contributions to our parish or the CFA, should involve a sacrifice, one that reflects God's generosity to us individually. Your gift is a personal decision between you & God, & should be made after prayerful consideration. We will provide additional information in next week's bulletin and, prepare you, over the next few Sundays, to make a one-time, or, a more generous 11-month-pledge-commitment.
