OLG 2026 Catholic Faith Appeal Goal $132,000

"Tell them to do good... be generous, ready to share."
(1 Timothy 6:18)

The Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA) provides an invitation to respond to this call by giving of our resources to help others. In addition, the CFA serves as an opportunity to share in the good works taking place every day throughout the Diocese of Venice. Bishop Frank J. Dewane thanks all for your support of this annual appeal.

We can't do what we do without you!

OLG 2026 CFA Goal is $132,000

"Tell them to do good . . . be generous, ready to share." (1 Tim 6:18)

The Sermon on the Mount (Mt 5-7) has had a profound impact. Leo Tolstoy was captivated by the sermon and its nonviolent precepts. It also inspired Gandhi's nonviolent resistance of British rule in India & Martin Luther King, Jr.'s struggle for civil rights in America. Such is the legacy of a simple story of a sermon, set on a hilltop in Galilee.

The Sermon on the Mount, Jesus' major discourse in Matthew's Gospel (Mt 5 – 7), which begins with the Beatitudes (Mt 5: 1-12), depict the chief characteristics and dispositions his disciples are to possess, especially toward those in need.

It's appropriate that we have this Gospel on a Sunday, in which Bishop Dewane echoes Jesus' appeal for support, on behalf of those with a variety of acute needs, to the 62 parishes and 18 missions which make up 10 county Diocese of Venice, on 2026 Catholic Faith Appeal Sunday.

The Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA) is a Diocesan-wide fundraising effort to support programs such as: Pastoral Outreach & Ministries; missions, poor parishes and convents; Catholic Charities; Evangelization; Worship; Respect Life; Peace & Social Justice; Vocations & Seminarians; Catholic Education; Diocesan administrative support services; etc.

The Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA) is a means by which all parishioners, including Our Lady of Grace, can take part in helping their Parish to meet its contribution. A Parish Catholic Faith Appeal goal is determined by the income of the Parish and is not based on the number of registered families because our population grows in the winter months from northern visitors. This greatly adds to the success of the Appeal. Northern visitors are invited and encouraged to participate in the CFA for the period of time for which they are here, normally ranging between 3 – 6 months.

OLG Parish Goal for 2026 is $132,000.00: How much should I give?

Your gift is a personal decision between you and God and should be made after prayerful consideration. "God loves a generous gift-giver."

There are 2 kinds of Gift-givers: 1. One-time gift-givers: 2. Pledge monthly payments

1. One time gift: For year starting January 1, 2026, ending on December 31, 2026.

$1,000	$500	$250	$100	$75	$50	Other
----------------	--------------	--------------	--------------	-------------	-------------	--------------

2. Pledge monthly payments: payable by 10th of each month, beginning Jan 10th thru Dec 10th, 2026. Check payable to Diocese of Venice for Our Lady of Grace Parish.

$5,000	$500 each month, Jan thru Dec 31, 2026, payable before 10th of each month.
----------------	---

"Tell them to do good . . . be generous, ready to share." (1 Tim 6:18)

After prayerful consideration, we invite and encourage you to make your donation or commitment over the next few Sundays. Thank you and may God bless and reward you.

The Sermon on the Mount (Mt 5-7) The Beatitudes (Mt 5:1-12)

The Sermon on the Mount (Mt 5-7) has had a profound impact. Leo Tolstoy was captivated by the sermon and its nonviolent precepts. It also inspired Gandhi's nonviolent resistance of British rule in India & Martin Luther King, Jr.'s struggle for civil rights in America. Such is the legacy of a simple story of a sermon, set on a hilltop in Galilee.

The Sermon on the Mount is Jesus' major discourse in Matthew's Gospel. It is addressed primarily to his disciples. It expounds the basic attitudes Jesus' disciples are to have in relationship to God as their Father, to Jesus as their Lord, to one another as brothers and sisters, and to others, even their enemies. As God's children, they are to live differently from others in the world and follow a standard that is nothing less than being “perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect” (Mt 5:48). Jesus' sermon begins with the beatitudes (Mt 5: 1-12), which depict the chief characteristics and dispositions his disciples are to possess.

Jesus' sermon represents a reversal of values – from the secular to the sacred – turning the world's standards for happiness upside down. If you were to ask the average American what 8 blessings, they wanted most in life, they probably would say # 1 - money – to win the Mega-1-billion-dollar lottery. In the 1st Beatitude, Jesus says, “Blessed are the poor in spirit,” that is, those who are detached from their money. Why? Because theirs is a kingdom money can't buy. Jesus, in the 2nd Beatitude, says, “Blessed are they who mourn.” “Mourn” for what? For “When bad things happen to good people,” a book by a New York Rabbi, Rabbi Kushner, who lost a 14-year-old son; how he was “comforted” by his belief in God, especially reading the book of Job, and, by the support of so many caring friends and congregants. The 3rd Beatitude – “Blessed are the meek” – “the meek” are the lowly who patiently wait on the Lord amid their afflictions and refrain from responding in anger or with force against those who wrong them. They rely on God, not on their own strength – “meek” does not mean weak. It is a “meek” – a virtuous - Mahatma Gandhi who took on British power in winning India's independence. It is a Dr. MLK, whose birthday we celebrated recently, using non-violence – being “meek” – to win civil rights for Afro-Americans. It is an inner strength which comes from a trust in God. The 4th Beatitude is “Blessed are the righteous, they will be satisfied.” They are those, described by Pope Benedict XVI, in his book, Jesus of Nazareth, “who are not content with things as they are and refuse to stifle the restlessness of heart that points man towards something greater.” Jesus says they will receive their hearts desire: “they will be satisfied,” Jesus continues with the 5th Beatitude, “Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.” It emphasizes the reciprocal nature of mercy.

God will show mercy to us to the extent that we show mercy to others. Nelson Mandela, when he became President of South Africa, after unjustly spending 27 years in prison, was able to heal a nation from apartheid by his example of mercy and forgiveness. Israel and Palestine have been demanding justice for 70 years and, unlike Gandhi, MLK and Mandela, are refusing to give each other mercy and forgiveness. The 6th Beatitude, Blessed are the pure of heart for they will see God, goes to the heart of the biggest addiction facing our culture today, the pursuit of pleasure – sex, drugs, drink, iPhone – it's our biggest “turn-on.” The “pure of heart” are those who love, not lust over others. “They will see God” with the eyes of the heart. Pascal describes it: “The heart has its own reasons for believing which are beyond reason.” The 7th Beatitude, “Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God.” Jesus came to give us peace with ourselves because we have peace with God instead of with the world, the flesh, and the devil, with greed and lust and pride. We are called “children of God” because of our intimate relationship with the Father. The 8th Beatitude refers to those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness like the prophets and martyrs in the Old and New Testaments, and Christians throughout history. Christ's faithful followers today like Maximillian Kolbe, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Dr MLK, and Cardinal Zen in China, experienced similar trials. Jesus promises that “theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.”

In conclusion, the Beatitudes are specific instructions for Christ's committed followers. The persecuted are no longer “they” (5:10) but “you” (5:11), referring specifically to the disciples (5:1): “Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you.” Where Jesus spoke of people being persecuted for righteousness' sake (v10), he now refers to his disciples being “persecuted because of me” (v11). Living the Beatitudes is imitating Jesus' life. In imitation of him, Jesus summons his disciples to be the “salt of the earth” and “light of the world,” that the world “May see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”

The Sermon on the Mount is the lesson that Jesus teaches in the Gospel of Matthew.

The Sermon on the Mount is the most famous speech Jesus ever gave.

St John Chrysostom invites us to ponder what the world would be like if the entire Christian community lived in imitation of Jesus, in the words of St. Paul, “I live now no longer I but Jesus lives in me:”

“Assuredly, there would be no non-believer, if Christians took care to be what we ought to be; if we obeyed God's precepts, if we bore injuries without retaliation, if when cursed we blest, if we rendered good for evil. For no man is so savage a wild beast that he would not run forthwith to the worship of the true religion, if we saw all Christians acting as I have said.”

Let's give St. Francis of Assisi the final word: “Preach the Gospel at all times and, if you must, use words,” concluding with his prayer: “Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope and, where there is sadness, joy.” Jesus' challenge in the Sermon on the Mount is simple, “What can I do to share God's love with the world? Let's get started. “Avanti.”

Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Las Bienaventuranzas

¿De qué te sientes más orgulloso? A todos nos gusta ser el mejor en algo, o al menos muy bueno. Pero es un poco absurdo basar nuestro propio valor en lo que logramos.

El Evangelio de hoy sobre las Bienaventuranzas lo aclara aún más. Bienaventurados no solo los pobres, sino los pobres de espíritu; no solo los hambrientos, sino los que tienen hambre de justicia. En otras palabras, no se trata tanto de lo que haces, sino de lo que Dios hace a través de ti. Cuánto sabes es menos importante que cuánto conoces al Señor. No se trata tanto de dónde vives, sino de si Dios vive en ti.

En lugar de pedirle a Dios que mis proyectos sean un éxito, puedo pedirle ¿qué quiere Dios que haga? En lugar de leer revistas o blogs para impresionar a tus compañeros de trabajo con tu conocimiento del mundo, dedica tiempo a leer las Escrituras y a escuchar atentamente al Señor en la oración. En lugar de quejarte del gobierno o de tu parroquia, intenta ofrecer tu tiempo como voluntario. Y por todo el bien que hagas, acuérdate de agradecerle al Señor. —Tom Schmidt

Tallahassee Trip-

Join the Diocese of Venice in Tallahassee in February 10 - 12, 2026 for Catholic Days at the Capitol! All are welcome. Each year during the Florida legislative session, Catholics from across the state gather in Tallahassee to bring the light of faith to the public square and promote Catholic values through civic engagement. United with the Florida Bishops, participants advocate for the protection of human life and dignity as lawmakers shape Florida's laws for the common good. By making the trip to our state capitol and lifting our voices, Catholic Days pilgrims help make a meaningful and lasting difference in the lives of all Floridians.

Register by January 7!
