1 Samuel 1

Do it!

Hannah knew where to turn when she needed something. Helping our children understand that God is their need-meeter is essential to helping them understand His nature. Purpose this week to verbally, in your child's presence, bring his or her needs to the Heavenly Father. Then let them wait with you on His response. You will see it if you pay attention. When you do see it, call their attention to it and let them give thanks with you. It is a wonderfully calming blessing for parents to see growing children trusting God to meet their needs. He can take care of them best of all.

I pray to You, Lord.

Psalm 69: 13

Praying is God's way for us to talk to Him.

Amen
