

Define it
Israel Taken Away,
But a Good King for Judah!

2 Kings 17-20

Do it

God gives us the opportunity to follow Him. He woos, encourages, and loves us but He doesn't force us to do, feel, or believe anything at all. He offers a gift. We may take it from His hand but He will never coerce us to receive it.

How gracious of Him!

It is important for your children to understand that the choice is theirs—that no one can make it for them. I think generations get lulled into thinking that Christianity is a family thing—that following Jesus is done as a unit.

In a way it is that, but the agreement with God over one's soul MUST be made by the soul itself.

Please encourage your children to make a decision about following Jesus.

Drink it

I am offering you life or death, blessings or curses. Now choose life!

Then you and your children may live. Love the Lord your God. Obey Him. Stay close to Him.

He is your life.

Deuteronomy 30: 19, 20

Say it

God does not make us follow Him. He allows us to choose.

Pray it

Dear God, thank You God for allowing me the freedom to choose whether to follow You or not. Please give me the faith to choose to follow You.

Amen.

Plan it

God loves and blesses us by allowing us to choose whether to follow Him or not. We are free to choose, so we choose to love and bless God and others. They will see the love of God through us and choose to love God themselves.
