

We Believe: One True God

Fieldstone 1/19/26

Full Discussion Guide

Short Discussion Guide

In a world full of options, opinions, and “truths,” the question isn’t just what we believe...but who we believe in. Scripture is clear and consistent in declaring that there is one true and living God. Understanding who He is shapes how we worship, how we live, and how we understand ourselves.

Ice Breaker

What’s something in life that can be helpful or enjoyable...but would be a terrible replacement for the real thing?

---

Big Ideas from the Sermon

- Scripture teaches that there is one true and living God
  - God eternally exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
  - God alone is worthy of worship, allegiance, and trust
  - God has no beginning and no end...He is the great “I AM”
  - God is ultimately about His glory...and that is good news for us

Discussion Questions

Understanding the Belief

1. Read Deuteronomy 6:4 together. Why do you think Scripture is so intentional about emphasizing that God is one?

2. Jesus says in John 8:58, “Before Abraham was born, I AM.” What would this statement have meant to the people hearing it at the time?

Why This Is Significant

3. Read Isaiah 44:6. How does believing God has no beginning or end shape the way we trust Him?
4. Scripture consistently rejects the idea of “other gods” (Psalm 115:4–8). Where do you see modern versions of false gods showing up in everyday life?

Life Application

5. Romans 9 challenges the idea that life is primarily about us. What changes when we see God’s purposes as bigger than our own comfort or plans?
  6. Read James 4:8–10. What might humility, honor, or surrender look like in a practical way this week?

Prayer Prompt
