

Bible Verses for Mormons

Here are a few Bible verses that contradict Mormon doctrine:

“God is not a man that He should lie.” (Numbers 23:19) Mormons believe that God is a man, but this verse clearly states that God is not a man.

“The Glory of Israel will not lie or change His mind; for He is not a man that He should change His mind.” (1 Samuel 15:29) This is another verse that clearly states that God is not a man.

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord (Jehovah) our God (Elohim) is one Lord (Jehovah).” (Deuteronomy 6:4). Mormons teach that Elohim and Jehovah are separate gods. However, the Bible teaches that God is called “the Lord God (Jehovah Elohim)” in Genesis 2:4,5,7,8,9,16,18,19,21,22). Many verses teach that the “Lord is God (Jehovah is Elohim)” including Joshua 22:34, 1 Kings 8:60, 18:24,36,39, Psalm 118:27.

“Before Me there was no God formed, and there will be none after Me.” (Isaiah 43:10) This verse proves that there were no gods before Him and there will be none after Him, thus disproving people achieving godhood.

“I am the first and I am the last, and there is no God besides Me.” (Isaiah 44:6). Again this verse proves there is only one God.

“The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands.” (Acts 17:24)

The Mormon Church has over 100 temples around the world. According to Mormonism, the temples are necessary for a Mormon to be exalted to godhood.

“However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual” (1 Corinthians 15:46). This verse tells us that people live in a natural body first and that they do not pre-exist as spirits before being born on earth as Mormons teach.

“For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven” (Matthew 22:30).

While Mormons teach that a man and woman are married throughout eternity, Jesus said there is no marriage in heaven.

“For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast.” (Ephesians 2:8-9)

This passage contradicts Mormon teaching that you must do good works to earn your way to the highest kingdom.

“But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ. For if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted, you bear this beautifully.” (2 Corinthians 11:3-4).

This passage warns about being deceived by those who preach “another Jesus” and a “different gospel.” The “Jesus” that Mormons preach and their “gospel” is not the same Jesus that’s revealed in the Bible.

Suppose I were to ask you, “Do you know James Hitchcock?”

You reply, “Yes, I know him. James Hitchcock a plumber in Salt Lake City.”

I respond, “No, that’s not the James Hitchcock that I’m talking about. The James Hitchcock I know is an architect in Orlando.”

They have the same name but are different people. The James Hitchcock that you’re talking about is not the same James Hitchcock that I’m talking about. The “Jesus” of Mormonism is not the same Jesus mentioned in the Bible and the “gospel” of Mormonism is a “different gospel.”

“Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you, unless indeed you fail the test?” (2 Corinthians 13:5). The test of being a true Christian is having Jesus Christ living inside you.
