Welcome / Announcements

Thanksgiving for Baptism (9:00, 11:00)

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, whose Word brings life, whose grace meets us in these waters, and whose love is at work in us and in the world.

C: Amen.

P: In baptism, God meets us with a promise. We are joined to Christ, surrounded by grace, and called beloved before we have done anything to earn it. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism and remember that God is still at work among us.

We give you thanks, O God, for the gift of water. In the beginning, your Spirit moved over the waters, and through your Word you called creation into life. You looked upon all you had made and called it good. Through water, you have carried your people from death into life, from captivity into freedom, from fear into promise. In the Jordan, Jesus entered these waters, and your voice named him beloved. In these waters you name us beloved, too. You join us to the death and resurrection of Jesus. You wash us in mercy, surround us with grace, and remind us that our lives belong to you.

P: In these waters, we trust:

C: You are at work in us, forming us into people who forgive, serve, seek justice, love our neighbors, care for creation, and make room for those the world pushes aside.

P: Renew us today in the promise of our baptism. And when the world tells us that nothing can change, send us out trusting that you are already at work. To you be all glory and praise, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Gathering Song

As We Gather at Your Table

ELW 522

- 1 As we gather at your table, as we listen to your word, help us know, O God, your presence; let our hearts and minds be stirred.
Nourish us with sacred story till we claim it as our own;
teach us through this holy banquet how to make Love's vict'ry known.
- 2 Turn our worship into witness in the sacrament of life;
send us forth to love and serve you, bringing peace where there is strife.
Give us, Christ, your great compassion to forgive as you forgave;
may we still behold your image in the world you died to save.
- 3 Gracious Spirit, help us summon other guests to share that feast where triumphant Love will welcome those who had been last and least.
There no more will envy blind us nor will pride our peace destroy,
as we join with saints and angels to repeat the sounding joy.

Prayer of the Day

THE WORD

First Reading

Isaiah 25:1-9

¹ O Lord, you are my God; I will exalt you; I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

² For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of foreigners is a city no more; it will never be rebuilt. ³ Therefore strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you. ⁴ For you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm, ⁵ the noise of foreigners like heat in a dry place, you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds; the song of the ruthless was stilled.

⁶ On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. ⁷ And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the covering that is spread over all nations; ⁸ he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. ⁹ It will be said on that day, "See, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

L: The word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 22:1-14

P: The gospel according to Matthew.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

¹ Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: ² “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. ³ He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. ⁴ Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.’

⁵ But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, ⁶ while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. ⁷ The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. ⁸ Then he said to his slaves, ‘The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. ⁹ Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.’ ¹⁰ Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad, so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹ “But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, ¹² and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?’ And he was speechless. ¹³ Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ ¹⁴ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Hymn of the Day

Now We Join in Celebration

ELW 462

1 Now we join in celebration at our Savior's invitation, dressed no more in spirit somber, clothed instead in joy and wonder;

for the Lord of all existence, putting off divine transcendence, stoops again in love to meet us, with his very life to feed us.

- 3 Lord, we share in this communion as one fam'ly of God's children, reconciled through you, our brother, one in you with God our Father.
Give us grace to live for others, serving all, both friends and strangers, seeking justice, love, and mercy till you come in final glory.

Apostles' Creed (ELW p. 105)

C: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
He descended into hell. On the third day, He rose again;
He ascended into heaven. He is seated at the right hand of the Father, and He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Let the Vineyards Be Fruitful

ELW 182

Let the vineyards be fruitful, Lord,
and fill to the brim our cup of blessing.
Gather the harvest from the seeds that were sown,
that we may be filled with the bread of life
Gather the hopes and the dreams of all;

unite them with the prayers we offer now.
Grace our table with your presence, and give us a foretaste of the feast to come.
