The Search Is On!

We have formed a search committee to find our new head of SCS. The committee is comprised of parents, faculty, and board members. Following are the names on the committee: Kyla Barrett, Charlie Conner, Dick Ferris, Greg Hogan, James Lair, Brenda Leonard, Veronica Meadors, Kelly Nighbert, Ashley Pettichord, Denise Poe, Tim Quick, and Anissa Smith.

Regarding the surveys, these were the top three qualities of a new head of school that were most important to parents: integrity, communicator, and Christian values. For employees, the number one quality was spiritual leader, and the following tied for second: visionary, integrity, and advocate for teachers. Stay tuned to future Friday Flashes for additional survey results!

If you know of someone who might fit the position, please have them contact the church or school office, or you may also reach out to any of our committee members. Please pray for the members of the committee and our school regarding this very vital decision. We are excited and full of faith about the future of SCS.
