

Summer Elective - C. S. Lewis'
The Voyage of the Dawn Treader
Writing/Bible Study Workshop

June 17-21, 2019

10:00 - 12:00

Room R-10 - Mrs. Hierlmeier

Whether you joined us for our previous adventure into The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe (June 10-14), we invite you to journey with the Pevensie children, brave Prince Caspian, obnoxious Eustace, and adorable Reepicheep as we cross the perilous seas in Narnia. C. S. Lewis' famous Christian fantasy classic will be used to prompt student writing and give us a look at how God's word shines through the characters and events. Each day we will watch a short segment of the film and then practice a variety of fundamental writing skills:

- * Find the "dragon" in you! Follow Eustace's transformation!
- * Write some poetry about Eustace! Dufflepuds! Reepicheep! Caspian!
- * Practice descriptive writing and draw dragons and dromonds. Decorate your quarters!
- * Illustrate a Dawn Treader theme park on the bulletin board
- * Become a map maker . . . lead someone to your treasure chest!
- * Apply parables and proverbs to the plot/characters

This week is designed to help students improve their confidence in (and love of) writing as well as have fun drawing and applying God's word to literature. Students will use the classroom chrome books (good keyboarding practice!).
