

Summer Elective - C. S. Lewis'
The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe
 Writing/Bible Study Workshop

June 10-14, 2019

10:00 - 12:00

Room R-10 - Mrs. Hierlmeier

C. S. Lewis' famous Christian fantasy classic will be used to prompt student writing and give us a look at how God's word shines through the characters and events of this wonderful story. Each day we will watch a short segment of the film and then practice a variety of fundamental writing skills.

- * Construct a dialogue between Aslan and the children (great lesson about Jesus!)
- * Write some poetry about Lucy! Susan! Edmund! Peter! Aslan! Mr. Tumnus! White Witch!!!
- * Practice descriptive writing and draw minotaurs and monsters! Create a Story Board.
- * Illustrate a Narnia theme park.
- * Be a movie critic . . . what makes this movie a classic?
- * Apply scripture to a plot/character - using quotations

This week is designed to help students improve their confidence in (and love of) writing as well as have fun drawing and applying God's word to literature. Students will use the classroom chrome books (good keyboarding practice!).

Come...all ages who love the story ... and enter through the Wardrobe with us!
 By knowing Aslan a little in Narnia, we can know Him better here.
