Feed My Sheep

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells Peter again and again, "If you love Me, feed my sheep." He says the same to each of us, "If you love Me, use the gifts I have given you to serve your brothers and sisters."

See John 21:15f

Showing Our Love

By Mary Katharine Deeley
© 2019 Liguori Publications

It has become the habit in our family to say "I love you" at the end of phone calls and e-mails. I love these frequent reminders that I am valued and worthy of love, and I like the opportunity to remind my daughters and husband that they are the same. We underscore these reminders with little acts of love. Our daughters joke that my husband and I are the only parents they know who still date. And when we do go out, we take turns paying for the other's dinner. My husband once sent me flowers when I didn't get a job I had hoped for. It was a kind and thoughtful gesture.

In the Gospel, Jesus asks Peter, "Do you love me" not once, but three times. When Peter responds positively (though progressively with more irritation), Jesus continues, "Feed my lambs...Tend my sheep...Feed my sheep." It isn't enough to say we love people. We show it by caring for them and for who and what they cherish. The best way that Peter could show his love for Jesus was by caring for the people of God. He could love all the disciples and invite others to follow Jesus as well.

Pope Francis once exhorted priests to "be shepherds with the smell of sheep." Jesus is telling Peter—and all of us—much the same thing. To love the Lord is to truly live among his people: to touch them, tell them, and show them they are valuable and desired. This is the face of love.

All people deserve to know they are loved, but in our world that is not always the case. How might we respond? +

A Word from Pope Francis

May the Christian communities be sustained by the intercession and example of our many martyrs and saints who bore courageous witness to Christ and have themselves attained full unity. So what are we waiting for?... As his disciples, we are called to testify everywhere, with Christian fortitude, to his humble love.

Ponder and Pray

Do I remember to tell family and friends that I love them? They want to know.

Do my actions show love for all God's people, indicating that they are valued and respected? Risen Lord, you gave your life to save the world. Help me to be a selfless servant of love and peace in the world.

—From Hopeful Meditations for Every Day of Easter Through Pentecost, Rev. Warren J. Savage and Mary Ann McSweeney

Outreach Ministry to the Sick

We are still looking for more volunteers to live out the corporal work of mercy of visiting the sick in a hospital or nursing home, or someone who is homebound. Please prayerfully consider whether this ministry might be for you. To learn more, please contact Veronica Fehrenbach at (253) 845-7521 or veronicaf@allsaintsparish.com.

All Saints Food Bank Garden—Help Needed!

We still have a number of garden beds available for adoption in the All Saints Parish Food Bank Garden! Adopt a bed with your family, a friend, or a ministry you serve with! There are ten beds, and they will be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. You will be responsible for the planting, and then harvesting through the end of the summer. Help our hungry neighbors, who will receive the grown produce through the food bank! To learn more, call the Community Services office at (253) 848-2000.

We're recruiting Food Bank Volunteers!

Help us to feed our hungry neighbors! We are in great need of more volunteers for our Food Bank, especially delivery drivers. This is a fun and rewarding way to live out our call to serve! To learn more, please contact Veronica at (253) 845-7521 or veronicaf@allsaintsparish.com.

Walking & Witnessing for Immigrant Families

The Archdiocese of Seattle is sponsoring a two-week pilgrimage through western Washington. It began on April 29th and will continue through May 11th. Participants will be walking from parish to parish, on a designated route, ending at the NW Detention Center in Tacoma.

Please join your fellow parishioners as we walk together from St. Martin of Tours to the NW Detention Center on Saturday, May 11th. We will depart at 9am from the St. Martin's parking lot, and our pilgrimage will end with Mass at the NW Detention Center at 11am. Rides back to St. Martin of Tours will be provided. Please RSVP to Veronica at (253) 845-7521 or veronicaf@allsaintsparish.com.
