COME TO ME

Election years, it seems, are increasingly painful. You may already have concluded that no matter who wins in November, we are and will continue to be a broken nation. Change is brutal and everything is being affected. There is no easy way through the tensions. Where are we headed and how do we prepare for it? No book, seminar, sermon, or training will give the answers desired. You can't necessarily plan for the future because the future is changing. Perhaps our only solace in the moment is that everyone is feeling it. May God who holds the future, hold us in this moment; through this dark night. "Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days" Psalm 90:14. Pastor Rick
