Multicultural Day – Friday, March 2nd

We celebrate our many different cultures here at Miramonte. March 2 will be a day of group learning about 4 different countries with students from other classes in the MELC – 4th Grade. In a potluck lunch, we will share dishes from those countries. This is a fun day that will help our students deepen their appreciation of our multicultural community.

Home & School Meeting

Friday, March 2nd 1:35-1:55 P.M. Come learn how you can help out with your child's school. We are also looking for a couple of Home & School team leaders. Look forward to seeing you!

6th Grade Leaves for Mission Springs this Monday, March 5th

Miss Maldonado, our super 6th grade class, and their chaperones leave for Mission Springs for their annual overnight, week-long trip. We pray this is a great event and super class bonding time.

Spelling Bee Heads to Fresno, Thursday, March 8th

Mrs. Maloon and our classroom representatives head to Fresno all day for the Central California Conference Spelling Bee. Our super-spellers are: Emma Enoveso (3), Danny Malo (4), Makaanaka Mtangi (5), Noah Hite (7), and Bethy Holderman (8). Good luck, Spellers!

Tech Club Team

The Miramonte Tech Club Team will be attending an Adventist Robotics League event that will be held at Sacramento Adventist Academy on Thursday, March 8th. The Adventist Robotics League consists of a group of Adventist students, teachers and mentors who recognize the importance of STEM education in our schools. For more information, email Mr. Koubong at rkoubong@miramonteschool.org.
