Scripture Memory for the month of August

Proverbs 3:1-8

- 1 My son, do not forget my teaching,
but let your heart keep my
commandments,
- 2 for length of days and years of life
and peace they will add to you.
- 3 Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you;
bind them around your neck;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- 4 So you will find favour and good
success
in the sight of God and man.
- 5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart,
and do not lean on your own understanding.
- 6 In all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make straight your
paths.
- 7 Be not wise in your own eyes;
fear the Lord, and turn away from evil.
- 8 It will be healing to your flesh
and refreshment to your bones.

Speaker's Corner

Welcome to our new parenting page! We hope to use this page to update and encourage you each month with what we're doing and how you can prepare your children each month. This page is meant to let you know what we'll be doing each month so you can read the passages we'll teach (and what comes before) together with your family each week, as you lead your kids in discipleship. We hope, as a Sunday school team, we can reinforce what you are teaching. You are the primary spiritual leaders and teachers of your children, and we hope to be a blessing to you.

◆ Resource of the Month ◆ Good News for Little Hearts

Published in partnership with the Christian Counseling & Educational Foundation (CCEF), the Good News for Little Hearts series aims to provide grace-based and biblical counsel to families. Each of the stories in this series of hardback, full-color books (written for children four to eight years old) focuses on an animal family facing real-life issues that children can identify with. By overcoming each struggle or hardship, the animal characters model hope in Jesus.

A section at the end of each story contains information for parents on how to use God's Word to help children apply biblical, gospel-based truths to the specific problem addressed in the book, as well as Scripture to remember in times of trouble.
