The Gospel To Rome
“Under Judgment”

Today's Message:

“But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—” Ephesians 2:4-5

In looking at the comparison of the righteous (those who obey God and honor Him as God) and the unrighteous (those who deny the truth of God for a lie and dishonor Him in their bodies, soul and mind) we need to remember that all will be judged. When we trust in the law, we must then live by the law for we will be judged according to the law. When we trust in God's righteous judgment we can rest in His unbiased determination of eternal outcome. Each of us know of people who without the law live in a greater fulfillment of the law than those who with the law live unrighteous lives. All people will be under judgment, and we must therefore examine ourselves to be sure that we are living lives in accordance with His desires and commands and not carrying out the very deeds we condemn others for committing. May we live in a way to bring God the greatest honor and glory for it is by God's mercy, grace and love that he saved us.
