Worship Celebration
“The Mystery Of Salvation”

Today’s Message:

“But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.” Galatians 3:22

This section depicts the fact that there will be a heavenly reunion of both Jew & Gentile believers. It is because God keeps His promises. He promised to save a remnant of Jews who have faith, as the faith of Abraham. He has also used sin and disobedience to usher in those whom He loves because they are children of faith in Christ. We long for that day when redemption will fully come as the Lord Jesus returns in victory and full glory. Until then, we wait, but we also labor to honor His call. God is faithful and merciful. We were at one time disobedient, but His mercy and forgiveness overshadowed us with grace. We cannot know or fathom His ways or judgments, but to Him will be all glory and honor. Begin today to praise and glorify God in the fullness of His mercy.
