Resurrection Sunday Worship Celebration
“He Is Risen & That Changes Everything”

Today’s Message:

“The Lord says to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool.” Psalm 110:1

Psalm 16 speaks of how God would not abandon the soul of His anointed to Sheol, or the pit. This is considered a Messianic Psalm, pointing to Jesus as the One who will not be abandoned. We see in Luke 23 that Jesus had died and that the women who were with Jesus from Galilee saw where they had laid His body. Being the evening of the Sabbath, they intended to return after the completion of the Sabbath to anoint His body with burial spices. However, entering the tomb they did not find His body and two angels declared: “He is not here, but has risen”. Time and again, Jesus had told His disciples that He was about to die and then rise from the grave. But, because this was no ordinary event, they were blind to what would and did happen. Today, do not harden your heart, but believe in Him and realize that the whole of Scripture points to Jesus. And the fulfillment of all Scripture is found in His resurrection and His power over death and the grave. As Peter declared – the promise is for not only those in Jesus’ time, but all who would believe.
