Sunday Worship Celebration
“The Law Of Love”

Today’s Message:

“So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.” 1 Corinthians 13:13

Paul constantly comes back to the very core of what makes his faith secure, the steadfast love of God. He then conveys how God’s attributes compel us to live our lives in honor of Jesus, no matter in what circumstance we find ourselves. God’s mercy, grace and steadfast love draw us to want to be pleasing to Him. It is not the stick that draws us to Him, but the carrot – His great love. Then, it is our love for God and one another that fulfills the Law of Christ and the commandments which again, prove our need for Him. Whether it’s here in Romans, or the letter to the churches of Colossae and Corinth, Paul constantly puts everything in perspective when he instructs us to love each other and be thankful for God’s love for us. When we put on the Lord Jesus Christ and His love for us, we will then not want to gratify the flesh, but rather we will desire to serve Him and those around us. May we realize how much God loves us and become His disciples, sharing that love with everyone we meet.
